Description:

NOW AVAILABLE! "A Baby Boomers Road Trip," the PHOTO version of this memoir, featuring more than 250 photographs the author, a gallery-exhibited photographer, snapped during a year-long road trip around the USA..

Stephen Braxton Thompson spent more than three decades as a broadcast journalist, many years a frontline war correspondent, spanning the fall of Saigon to South Africa's blood-soaked transition to a non-racial democracy.

In his latest adventure, Thompson set out to explore a land he hardly knew...HIS OWN. Forty thousand miles of pavement were rolled up during the road trip, a journey which resulted in a lyrical, sentimental, poignant, often amusing look at the people and places Thompson encountered along the American highway.
