Description:

In perfect, brand new condition. "Things I would like to do with You" is about love. A love for a new generation, a love that includes room for independence, change, humor...even loneliness. Poetically searching through four seasons, Things is a sweet book to curl up with. The mindfulest book: Printed and bound in the United States on chlorine-less, 30 percent recycled, 100 percent sustainably harvested paper with vegetable based inks and a non-plastic cloth cover. Finally, each book is offset with a donation to help rescue a horse [Great Escape Mustang Sanctuary]. Early Reviews: "Your words are ignition, and they are, at the same time, the peaceful water that quenches and soothes my thirsty soul. I've been saving for this book, and I greatly anticipate holding it in my hands and in my heart. Thank you." "Beautiful, heartfelt, sexy, inspirational and incredibly well written book. Waylon is a true romantic." ~ Seane Corn, Yoga teacher About the Author: Waylon Lewis likes to think he snowshoes hut-to-hut and builds nail-less tiny houses in trees while drinking wild-crafted teas from herbs he has gathered in the woods beside his faithful half-hound, Redford. In reality, he founded Elephant Journal. From the Book: "Love is about finding one's match, which means we shall touch our minds and hearts together at once, and never condescend or aim for any goal between us but the truth." "I do not want my idea of you. That is too easy, and it is not real. I want you, faults and all. And I want you to want me, faults and all, not any ideas you have about love." ~ All elephant orders are packed and shipped by hand with love by our Shop Manager in Boulder, Colorado. Fair labor, unlike most shipping houses.
